

Shipment regulations

Dear participant,

You can send your working materials to your partner in Moscow or to our address, stated below. After receiving your package, we will transport it to your fair booth for free.

Please use the following address:

Starchenko Valeriy,
"Education and Career"

Vostochnaya str., 4, office 226
Moscow 115280
RUSSIA
+7 916 6505452

We recommend you to use special post services (DHL, UPS and etc.) as you can control the package status through the tracking number.

We kindly ask you to send us the information about you shipment (post service, date, number, name of sender) on rtv@znanie.info.

Before sending, please check custom regulations with your shipping company.

Please note, that according to our previous experience, each separate box should be less that 20 kg. and should be sent separately (in different days). Value should be stated as “no commercial value” (the minimum value, but not less than 3 EURO per kg).

The total weight of the package out of separate boxes, sent separately to one address should not exceed 70 kg.

Please note, that it's only our previous experience.

Please note, that custom regulation changes very often!!!

Please note, that we are not a broker company and we don't hold any responsibility in case your package is stopped at the custom. The custom clearance will take a lot of time and money for you. We are not liable to perform any custom clearance activities. Thus, before sending your materials, please consult with your mail services on how to avoid any problems at the custom.

Please note, that in case, you are using post office services, your package might arrive with a delay.

Please note that we need to receive your shipments in Moscow till 20th of March and then send it to Saint-Petersburg.
